No Easy Way

I'm afraid, forever's only knee deep now

And I'm afraid, it's already come

I'm afraid, to make it through another day

And I'm afraid, of being on my own.

We don't have much anymore

I can't recall the last time you looked at me

Without that on your face

It's wearing pretty thin

There's something wrong with everything

I'm afraid I just can't find a way

It's wearing pretty thin

It's like it's touching everything

I'm afraid there's just no easy way

I'm afraid, I've already stayed too long

I'm afraid, of giving up too soon

I'm afraid, of keeping it all to myself

I'm afraid, of saying it out loud

And we don't share much anymore

I can't recall the last time you talked to me

Without all your distaste

If you close your eyes you will still feel

The rain falling like before

Where do you hide when your hearts the one to blame
